Guidelines for Parents / Guardians

The GAA believes that parents should...

- Be a role model for their child and maintain the highest standards of conduct when interacting with children, other parents / guardians, officials and organizers.
- Always behave responsibly and do not seek to unfairly affect the game / player.
- Never intentionally expose any young participant to embarrassment or disparagement by the use of flippant or sarcastic remarks.
- Always recognize the value and importance of the volunteers who provide sporting / recreational opportunities for your child.
- Respect referees, sports leaders and other players. Do not publicly question the judgment or honesty of referees or sports leaders.
- Encourage your child to play by the rules. Teach your child that honest endeavor is as important as winning and do all you can to encourage good sportsmanship.
- Set a good example by applauding good play on both sides. Encourage mutual respect for team mates and opponents.
- Support all efforts to remove abusive behavior and bullying behavior in all forms.
- Read the bullying policy within the club organization guides.
- Sign up to the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Young People in Sport

Parents / Guardians code of conduct:

1. I will respect the rules and procedures set down in the GAA code of Ethics for Young People in Sport.
2. I will respect my child's leaders, (e.g. managers, coaches, officials), their team mates and their parents, as well as players, parents and coaches from the opposing teams. I will encourage my child to treat other participants, coaches, selectors and manager with respect.
3. I will give encouragement and applaud only positive accomplishments whether from my child, their team mates, their opponents or the officials.
4. I will respect my child's leader(s) and support his/her efforts.
5. I will respect the officials and their authority during matches.
6. I will never demonstrate threatening or abusive behavior or use foul language.
